URBAI

UNION

"TELL THEM TO OBEY THE LAWS AND UPHOLD THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES."-LAST WORDS OF STEPHEN A. DOEGLAS.

VOL. I.

URBANA, OHIO, WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 24, 1862.

NO. 26.

URBANA UNION

J. W. HOUX, PROPE. OFFICE :- Coulson's Building, (second floor, West able North Malp street, near the Square. Trans: -$1. per senum, invariably in advance. 21 copies one year, $10.

LAW OF MEWSPAPERS:

i. Subscriburs who do not give express notice the contrary, are considered as wishing to con-use their subscriptions to the paper.

If subscribers order the discontinuance of the periodicals, the publisher may continue to Select Boetry. Never before Published A WOMODY.

BY POSETH RODINAN DRAWS.

Yes, weep for the brave who in battle have died, Their fall was triumphontly bright! With our sorrows shall mingle a feeling of pride Like the moon through the tears of the night,

They are gone, but the fame of their glorious Shall live in our memory yet, To the blaze of the sun that has set !

War-Wit.

GENERAL POPE'S CAMPAIGN.

A RICH BURLENQUE.

Anmying near the celebrated Molasses unction, where a number of Mackerels were placing a number of new cars and locomotives on the track—the object being to delude vice versa. the Southern Confederacy into taking a ride in them, when, it was believed, the aforesaid Confederacy would speedily be destroyed by selves inside the most complete circle on recone of these "frightful accidents" without ord. Villiam Brown not only charged into which a day on any American railroad would the wood, but staid there; and when one of be a perfect anomaly-arriving there, I say, the Orange County Howitzers was discharg-I took an immediate survey of the appointed ed with great precision at a reporter who field of strife.

To the inexperienced civilian eye, my boy, everything appeared to be in a state of cha- at Washington, causing that reverend man etic confusion, which nothing but the military to telegraph to all the papers, that no one gentus of our generals could make much need feel alarmed, as he was perfectly safe, worse. On all sides, my boy, I beheld Mack- and that our victory was very complete. erel chaps marching and countermarching; for their regiments, which had become mixed with other regiments; some were insanely looking for their officers, as though they did not know that the latter have resided permanently in Washington ever since the war they might happen to find. me, I saluted him, and save I:

"Tell me, my veterau, how it is that you permit the Southern Confederacy to meander thus within your lines?" The general looked toleratingly at me, and "I have a plan to entrap the Confederacy, and end this doomed rebellion at one stroke.

down there near my quarters?" "Yes," says I, nervously. "Well, then, my nice little boy," says the general, cautiously. "I'll tell you what my plan is. Those wagons contain the rations the celebrated Confederacy to capture those the free will of the wenters wagons and attempt to eat those rations. If By "no lines of retreat being kept open, the Confederacy will only do that," says the is meant : no lines of which the general comgeneral, fiercely, "it will be taken sick on the manaing was at the time cognizant. spot, and we shall capture it alive." I could not but feel shocked at this inhuman artifice, my boy. The Southerners have enthusiasm in the ranks, as no Confederacies but they never worshipped him as a hero. Ef the last words of a dvin unfortinit will While thus engaged, they say the serpent has indeed acted in a way to forfeit all ordinary had yet been caught, and there was some He is not cannonized in their affections. The have any effect on them who is turnin their several times made its appearance and driven mercy, but still, we should abstain from any danger of starvation in the corps. retaliatory act savoring of demoniac maligni- And now, my boy, occurred that magnifi- distant cities or in remote periods of time. it! Better run the risk of nineteen drafts— old fellow, and, if they prove successful, we Fereign Miscellany—A Man in the Chitches it was almost impossible for him to devote to ty. Our foes are at least human beings. Suppressing my horror, however, I assumed a practical aspect, and says I : "But how are the Mackerel warriors to a paper from his pocket. "They are to sub-

Taking the paper, I found it to be the fol-and partsking of no other food.

The Brigads will not be permitted to take of the line. quired henceforth to dress exclusively in the habiliments of captured Confederates.

We have done with retrograde movements. No mose lines of retreat will be kept open make nothing but great captures. By order of the

GENERAL OF THE MACKETEL BRIGADE.

[Green Seal.]

that moment, I beheld some half s dozen mies and-every body else. Confederacies rausacking the tent where the General kept his mortgages, his bank accounts, and other Government property, I left that our foes were to be summarily dealt with at

An orderly having finally given notice to the Confederacies rummaging within our lines to get to their proper places, in order that the battle might begin, the Anatomical Cavand them until all arroanges are paid.

2. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their periodicals from the office to which they were discreted, they are held responsible till they have setsed they are held responsible till they have setsed the bill and ordered them discontinued. were destroying a bridge near the middle of ing reminiscences of Martin Van Buren. We 4. If subscribers remove to other places with-cut informing the publisher, and the papers are sent to the former direction, they are held respon-main there. This brilliant movement was 5. The Courts have decided that refusing to take the signal for a general engagement, and a periodicals from the office, or removing and leaving them uncalled for, is prime facing evidence of within our lines and inquired the way to ment in 1992 at West regiment of Confederacies at once advanced sions of Mr. Van Buren are in place. They within our lines and inquired the way to meet in 1823, at Washington as Senators of get between us and Richmond.

near at hand, with a view to induce some re- whole subject. I turned to my colleague, heretofore been our misfortune to fight on the his heart," circumference of a circle, while the Confederacy had the inside and this great strategic scheme was intended to produce a result

It was a great success, my boy-a great success; and our troops presently found themwas caught meaking into our lines, the report was heard by the Venerable Gammon

What particular danger the Venerable Gamfalling back, retiring, retreating, and making mon had incurred, I can't say, my boy; nor

Having got the Confederacies just where he wanted them, the General of the Mackercommenced; some were making calls on oth- el Brigade now dispatched ten veterans uners and here and there might be seen squads der Sergeaut O'Pake to attack a few hundred of Confederacies picking up any little things fees who had intrenched themselves in an gade lunching upon a bottle and tumbler near and paroled on the spot; a proceeding al, that he at once issued this second to dine exclusively upon Southern Confederacies, the General commanding did not in- President who ever betrayed the American Do you mark that long train of army wagons tend that such dining should take place without the free consent of the aforesaid Confed-

PROCLAMATION

It must not be understood that the order concerning the confiscation of Confederate garments in intended to authorize a forcible of cer troops. It is my purpose to induce confiscation of such costume, in opposition to The people thought no better of him for that wheres. Noah's duy was more fortinit—she of the largent, and assert that he has frequent-cent piece of generalship which is destined His name will never be a watchword. Yet better stand yer chance of hivin your bones shall then have an opportunity to give a betto live forever on the annals of fame, and he had many devoted friends, among men who piled and made into canyments to adorn she- ter account of him. There is a strong probaconvince the world that our military leaders never wanted office, and who drew closer to seceshers, than to find yourself a stranger in bility of extensive coal fields being discover- Bell's Hippodrame Circus was parading in ward. The day of departure arrived, and he possess a genius eminently fitting every one him in his retirement than when he was in this unaccaountably strange land. "Thunder!" says the General, handing me gifted general of the Mackerel Brigade had bler ever lived, he was the object of an affecter skedaddlers here who aim their livin as double-quick !" ed to live entirely upon the Southern Con- ment of Confederacies in charge of our bagfederacy, eating him alive wherever found, gage wagons; racing after whom was a regihast regiment coming in is Mackerel or Con- Mr. Van Buren land no wit, but he had hu- when a feller critter, is totterin on the brink "Can't see it," said the bore, as he bright- ovaly on the paw of the flow, which for few wands that the General wears this kind of deed commenced in carnest; and though at side will tend to utterly confound our ene- be bored that out of the material he has left encouragement, run the risk of becoming the

THE GENERAL OF THE MACKEREL BRIGADE.

Yours ponderingly, ORPREUS C. KERR.

All Sorts of Good Rending.

Martin Van Buren-Interesting Reminiscences-Mr. Van Buren's Unpublished Memoirs.

MR. WILLIAM ALLEN BUTLER, of New York, contributes to the Independent some interest

the United States. The Tennessee Senator

MR. VAN DUBEN'S PERSONAL TRAITS.

After all, it is not the lawyer nor the statesman, but the man, of whom we must take the final account. Mr. Van Buren, in his personal traits, was marked by a rare individuality. He was a gentleman, and he cultivated the feeted the companionship of men of letters, though I think his conclusion was that they are apt to make poor politicians and not the state of natur.

It is not the poor politicians and not the state of natur.

It is not the poor politicians and not the state of natur.

It is not the poor politicians and not the state of natur.

It is not the poor politicians and not the state of natur. best of friends. Where he acquired that pe-I do not know. As far as my early recollec-

This admiral order, my boy, produced great Clay. The masses accepted him as a leader, kiver me up,

SE VAN BUREN'S MEHCERS.

That question, my boy, can not be decided when it turned on the incidents of his person- yet want them. This able decument, my boy, pleased me found metaphysical aspect, and the develop- ever in the actions or the character of men a man be found into the merine binness agin. We binness agin.

greatly as an evidence that the war had in- ment of little more military genius on our be had thought worth remembering. It is to his will?-Must be, jist for want of a leetle The Ironsides-A Visit to Her and General tivities and interior lives of those of whom we me!

Ethan Spike in Trouble.

Canady, Aug. 27th. I ART pleasantly sitocated up here-quite Having given them the desired informa- soon formed his opinion about the New York contrary wise. The kernucks dont seem to who has been out on the American Desert, tion, and allowed a number of other similar Senator. I will give his own narrative as I appreciate the moral courage that must acregiments to take a position between the listened to it under the porch of the Hermit- tooate a feller critter's bussum afore he kims looking up cattle, has furnished us with a few we fairly stood upon her splendid deck that Mackerels and the capital, the General gave age in 1814. "I had beard a great deal about to the skedaddlin pint. Only yesterday, one items in regard to a new Salt Lake on the we could appreciate her proportions. She is by detect the presence of the baser metal by orders for the Conic Section and the Orange Mr. Van Buren," said the General "especials of the beknighted critters told me I was "a aforesaid desert that bids fair to eclipse that 240 feet in length, 56 feet width of beam, and the sense of smelling. So, at least, I was County Howitzers to fall cautiously back, in ly about his non-committalism. I made up white-livered cuss!" I axed him of he war one possessed by our Mormon brethren furthorder that the remaining Confederates might my mind that I would take an early opportu- in airnest? He said he war; an I torguy er east. On the American Desert, about six- her sides sloaping heward, something after the my mind that I would take an early opportu- in annual I was a singularly indeficate "way of smell-You will perceive by this movement, my day an important subject was under debate in between the two countries, an ef he hadnt from the Carson River, and about one mile and equipped she draws 15 feet of water, and boy, we cut the enemy's forces completely in the Senate. I noticed that Mr. Van Buren looked as though he could lick me, I'd hey from the old emigrant road crossing that desmade easily seven knots an hour, though not two, thus compelling him to attack us either was taking notes whille one of the Senators knocked his greasy fur cap into the middle of ert, there is a small lake of extremely salt wa-Ideeds in the front or in the rear, giving him no was speaking. I judged from this that he in-As the tear-bedewed beaming of moonlight suctended to reply, and I determined to be in my position in our center, while still others would said I, 'is there any thing non-committal of I sot in a common draft, and he official one to it higher than the desert, and the drifting be likely to flank us on the right and left. about that?' 'No, sir,' said he. This decis-You may remember, my boy, that it has ion of Jackson's head was never reversed by it may save the gineral constituotion, would lake is some three miles in circumference, and ruinate mine—it makes a Shakin Quaker of has been sounded to the depth of fifteen hunme jest to think about it. Ef there was any dred feet without finding bottom. The perway to be inwulnerable to baggernuts, minnow, rifles, comickal shells, and sich like gear, twould be different. Ef they could put me into a dry dock-for instance-and turn acut iron-clad, so's I was sure nothin could few rushes and willows that grow near severhart me-why, Pd jest as lives go raound al springs adjacent and flowing into it. One society of gentlemen. He never had any as-buttin other folks as not-I think the Moni- of these is a line spring of sulphur water, and sociates who were vulgar or vicious. He al- tor line would suit me-but my physical cor-
I shouldn't her trial trip, for it would have been insixteen put up at one of the hotels in this city, ments. Our plans being thus perfected, Cap- seat when he spoke. His turn came, and he sapinted, for I caounted on a flatterin recep. Mormondom. Persons who have visited both tain Villiam Brown, with Company 3, Regi- rose and made a clear, straightforward argu. tion-but there aint nary a flatter attached to lakes pronounce it so. This lake is in a basin ment 5, was ordered to charge into a wood ment, which to my mind, disposed of the it. Decidedly cool-borderin on the frosty.

Do you suppose they would draft me of I water to be obtained from the springs. went back? I skersely think twould be con-Finding the general of the Mackeral Bri-Mackeral Bri-Mackeral Bri-Mackeral were well received as prisoners of this life-long serenity and self-control. It was -taint my fault-its a oiliactory pervision of shaughtered a sheep and left it lying on the prairie. another of the charges against him that he was natur—thats what it is, Ef I perfer keepin bank. which so greatly pleased the idelized Gener- no democrat. He dressed too well, he lived my human form devine hull, to hevin it bored During the time they were there, the mon too well, the company he kept was too good, full of holes, so's twould look more like a ster serpent made his appearance, attracted his tastes were too refined, his tone was too cullender than the noblest work of God- doubtless by the dead sheep. He did not elegant. So far as democracy is supposed to don't I show good tasts. I'm willin them as is emerge entirely from the water, but came out It must be undrstood, that in his recent have an elective affinity for dirt, this was all differently sot up by natur should go to war to where it was very shallow, and was then proclamation directing the Mackerel Brigade true, he was no democrat, in taste or feeling, in fact, I want em to-why cant they be frightened off at the appearance of the men, and he never pretended to be. The only equally ginerous and let me stay to hum? who are supposed to have been as badly people is the only one of whom I remember distressedest kind-for a man who's ollers see his full length, but assert that they saw as to have seen it chronicled in the newspapers, bin a respected feller citizen! Ive lost my much as sixty feet of him, and believed that as a proof of his democracy, that he made a own country-an furrin nations dont want he was, from appearance, at least one hunparade of getting out of a stage-coach in the me-I'm ostrichised, expatiated, and dis- dred and fifty feet in length, and larger round course of a hot journey and washing his tace frankinchised-Pm the Wandrin Jew of the the body than any medium sized man. The in a tin basin and drying it on a tavern towel. nineteenth centry. I cant get a footholt any- Indians in that vicinity corroborate the story bit of deception, which deceived nobody. | could go back-I cant-there's no ark for me, | ly frightened them away from the lake. Mr. Van Buren never played such tricks as nor nobody to open the window of there was. The ducks and geese visit the lake and lay these. As to the elements of the widest pop- I shall probably starve to death fiat like the their eggs in parts of it where they can make ularity, they were not in him. He never in- children in the wood--only I dont bleve these nests in the rushes. The Indians have been spired enthusiasm, as Jackson did, or Henry | Kernuck robbings will take the trouble to in the habit of building small boats from the day of his birth will not be commemorated in eyes in this direction-I would say, dont do them off. Efforts will be made to capture the peaceful office. By skillful maneuvring, the part of one man, than whom no purer or no- get an honest livin here. That are 2 or 3 fel- wada) Silver Age. great expense to the United States of Amer- fore them, came a regiment of Confederacies, its mellow light and glow with its genind I tried to jine a nigger settlement, tellin them at St. James and the Tuilleries.

> mor, and a keen sense for the humorous, and of Mumbo Jumbo? One word from you ened up and started for his hat. This is re-minutes had to let go his hold, and Cournage armor since his arrival in New Orleans, and The contest, my boy, has assumed a pro- he could reproduce, with rare fidelity, what- will save me from this woolen destiny. Must for such a work, we may have one which venurable ancester of a long line of milk and shall represent to us some thing of the real ac-meriassis colored decendants? Horris help

ETHAN SPIKE. know so little beyond their names and titles, P. S. The shady she critter, who threatens Ironsides. I had the pleasure of going on here to make rhymes? so that they may seem to us more like living onless suthin turns up right away-to bekim board of her, and of being shown all over her men and less like mummies. At this present the pardener of my joys and sorrers—she by her commander, the gallant and pelite Cap-times moment we could hardly stop to read such a may hev the hull of the latter—hes jest left tain Thomas Turner. The Ironsides is a book, no matter how vivid and lifelike. But me, She examined me as a jocky would a strange and incomprehensible looking craft; after the storm and the earthquake are over, hoss-looked at my teeth, punched my ribs, but after going about her, examining her peand we have learned to value the republic by an, by the soft persuation of a hickory switch cultarities, and marking everywhere the adwhat it has cost us in brave lives, we, or eyes induced me to run, jump, and heller. She mirable adaptation of certain measures to ceryounger than ours, will turn with new inter- called this courtin of me! Ef this wooin, wot tain ends, the conviction is forced upon every est and delight to whatever in literature or will be the weddin! Wot a sea of kernubial one that her capacity has not been overrated, in art shall be commemorative of those who matternony awaits me-and yet I shrink as and that she will prove one of the most for-

Another Salt Lake and Another Sea Serpent.

of the desert, and the surface of it is probably I would go back, but darsent-my feble 200 feet lower than the level of the desert. centiv-arrived reserve Confederacies to take Major Eaton, who sat next me: 'Major,' health wont stand a draft. I offers tuk cold There appears to have been natural banks sons who sounded it had only fifteen hundred feet of line, and were therefore unable to go further and ascertain its frue depth. There is no vegetation surrounding the lake, except a stop there to avail themselves of the pure fresh he were so lightly, and which served every stitutoonal. I've gained a resident here—an munication with the ocean, there is a chance muthenticity is unquestionable. Just at the turn of domestic, social and public intercourse, would kim under the statoote perwided for for some scientific gentleman to display his time when the Grim Chieftain was preparing furriners. I'm too old, was a candydate for talents by giving us a satisfactory reason why tions go it was not indigenous in the social office and the reception be met with threw office of Finderbook. The was thing it has a tide that ebbs and flows. We are circles of Kinderkook. I do not thing it was kin prove that I was born in the United Positively assured that during twenty-four the papers about the "twelve inch mortars" all others in the shade. He had not gone a retrograde they essentially Dutch. It could hardly be called be seen that I was born in the United positively assured that I was born in the United positive po patch caused renewed confidence all over the untural, although it seemed so natural ic him. got teeth enough to bite a catridge—never feet. If what we have heard is corcountry, and was a great comfort to his As you saw him once you saw him on As you saw him once you saw him always—any time—the smell of gunpaowder makes of the Pacific coast had better visit that locali any time—the smell of gunpaowder makes of the Pacific coast had better visit that localialways punctifions, always polite, always polite, always polite, always pence the smell of gunpaowder makes of the fractic coast had better visit that localistic that localist the streets, and it was at once telegraphed all over service, and it was at once telegraphed all over service, and it was at once telegraphed all over cheerful, always self-possessed. It seemed to led—such kimickal combinations never agreed to led—such kimickal combinat any one who studied this phase of his character with me. Ef these disibilities dont constitutions never agreed with me. Ef these disibilities dont constitutions are to be told. They

Here's a sitoontion-a sitoontion of the frightened as was the snake. They did not

Tules and going in and getting the eggs.-

Description.

FORTRESS MONHOE, August 27, 1862. The event of to-day was the sudden arrival

I draw nearer to that blissful brink. - Vanity midable engines of war that ever floated upon the water. As we approached the huge, leaden color-things devoid of order-such as a key, a jumed craft, with its terrible proboscis, threaten- bier, or a plate-they frequently involuntarimight come in centact, it was not easy at first ness, as our housewives would test the freshmasts had been removed previous to her ma- an old gentleman of sixty, and a maiden of teresting to know how the vessel would act the register discovering, much to the surprise under all circumstances. The removal of her of the proprietors, that the couple were man masts was probably owing to the idea among and wife, probably in the first stages of the the authorities that she might ere this have honeymoon.

been called into action. The armament of the Ironsides is terrific. Beside sixteen 11 inch guns-eight ominous port-holes for them peeping on each side- to be some heart-crushing sorrow. she carries two enormous 200 pounders, that nrust crush to pieces any thing made, with human hands, besides other guns.

The mode of bringing the guns to bear on the enemy, of opening and shutting the portholes in time of action, and the entire system of protecting the men, are most admirable. The engines are a splendid piece of workman-

" Brig. Gen." Jim Lane on Artillery.

THERE is a good story long affoat among the friends of the "Grim Chieftain," which, we

"O, very easily," said the grine chieftain- taking the General by the hand, made the air a little carriage and apair of mules will carry ving with their cheers,

"Why, what do you suppose a twelve-inch mortar is?"

"Twelve-inch mortar? Why, a mortar welve inches long, of course."

will weigh ?" put it high enough, at all risks."

"About a lamilred pounds." Six of 'em will be 24.000."

The Grim Chieftan concluded not to log he "twelve-inch mortars" that time.

The Leavenworth Conservative proposes to opercede Gen. McClellan by Brigadier Gen. Lanel

Great is Kansas, and Lane is its prophet.-St. Louis Vepublican.

of a Lion.

ed in the vicinity of the lake. Several small procession the streets of this town, an acci- went with his wife and his children to the subsist, my Napoleon, if you sllow the rations of then for the next Presidedcy, or any other power, This much I can testify, that on the power, This much I can testify, that on the power, This much I can testify, that on the power, This much I can testify, that on the power, This much I can testify, that on the power to embark. Unfortended except work—to be the power to embark the power the power to embark the power to emb succeeded in cutting the enemy's force to thou so true and steadfirst, so faithful through furrin correspondents for the Trybune. I Mr. Lincoln's Idea of the Strength of the Army. herbee, the rear being brought up by a cage water between the deck and the shore formsist exclusively on the enemy. Just peruse pieces, the pieces being mixed up with our good report and evil report, so loyal to its own tried the dodge and writ to Horris, but he The President keeps cool, which is more which contained five specimens of the forest ed an acute angle, and Blondan himself would this document, which I have just fulmina own army. Then came the words "Forward, high sense of duty, so tender and so generous, limit been sivil enough to reply. Then I may found it difficult to maintain his equilithat it could never cease to command my addertak to come the George Francis Train, but reported, Secretary Seward has left the city phants. A man named Cournance having brium upon it. But Gen. Butler, confident that Facing toward Washington, our vanguard miration, if it had not long ago claimed my the half-breed blue-nose lion wont bear half with his family and baggage. But, this is all ventured too near the animals, one of them his center of gravity was sufficiently ponderforced the Confederacies before them to move filial reverence. Seen through a medium so as much as the old seed one at hum does— right; for "The Premier" should be the last throat his immense paw through the bars of ous to secure him against all accidents, venright ahead. Swiftly following the vanguard, pare and tranquil, the traits of the character I mo fust bust of irrepressible patriotism cost man caught by the rebels, since Mason and the cage, caught hold of him by the end of tured bravely upon the steepy road. Hardly Warrans, The matter of provisions is a and evidently fancying that it was flying be- have attempted to draw are all tinged with me a bunged eye an a broken nose. Lastly, Slidell would then have it all their own way close to the cage. In this having succeeded, feet glided along and down he went, measurice, besides offering indusements for unex- Pursuing the latter, as though in triumph, warnath, and the faults or failings, which I was a Octeroon—an would hev gon as low Somebody—some inquisitive Yankee, like- the lion made an effort to catch the man by ing the plank with all his length, and producpected raids on the part of the famishing toe- appeared the Conic Section, Mackerel Bri- another and perhaps a juster secutiny might as a meriatter, or even a aberlishumist—but by as not—asked the President "What num- collar of his coat, and the latter, to save him- ing at the same time a noise somewhat similar man; the Mackerel Brigade is hereby direct- gade; closely succeeded in its turn by a regi- disclose, fade out of sight. twent of men have the enemy in the field?" self, ducked his head right under the flooring to that of an old kettle. His servants ran to dible onless I would go into holy matter- "Old Abe" looked serious, and replied, of the cage. The flon then caught hold of his assistance, and he was soon up again, Mr. Van Buren has left memoirs, partly many with a young lady of the African per- "Twelve hundred thousand, according to the best him with his paw by the upper of his shoul- When it had been ascertained that the Genment of Mackerels; and so on to the end finished. If his reminiscences can be given to sussion—aged 58, and weighs 283 lbs. aver- authority." The interogator blanched in the der, and held him for a faw seconds. The eral was unburt, inquiries were made conthe world as he was in the habit of giving dypois—an considerable more appotycarries face, and ejaculated, "My God!" The Presi- keeper (Mr. Batty,) who had been riding be- cerning the sound of metal heard at the time my clothing with it on the march, being reTou may ask me, my boy, with which side them to his friends, in all the treshness of laditto. I declined this tempting offer of the dent continued: "Yes, sir, twelve hundred hind the cage, and who is renowned for the of his fall. It was not long before the mysrested the victory in this remarkable move- miliar intercurse, they will be most attractive. present—solely on constituotional grounds— thousand—no doubt of it. You see, all of our bravery which he rescued Kelly, in Kingston, tery was solved. The clothes of the General There was a charm about his conversation holding it in reserve, hopin that Greely may Generals when they get whipped, say the from a like but more serious predicament, having been torn in his perilous descent, peoenemy outnumbers them from three to five to immediately dismounted, and struck the lion ple saw, protruding underneath his coat, a yet, as the whole procession had scarcely al experience which could hardly be trans- Mr. Greeley, of youve got any baowels of one, and I must believe them. We have four several heavy blows on the paw, which still large breastplate, reaching from his neck down and henceforth the Mackerel Brigade is to reached Washington; but the answer may be ferred to the printed page, so much of its inshill to depend very much upon whether the terest depended on manner and expression, you fold yer arms an muce yer pea-nuts times four make twelve. Don't yea see it? ever, continued to ply his loaded whip vigor-produced the noise. It was accertained after-

Is a certain well-known city a genius was hauled up for kissing a girl and kicking up a dust; and the following dialogue ensued:

"Is your name John Jay?"

"Yes your honor, so the people say."

"Was it you that kissed the girl and raised the alarm? You rascal! did you come "No your honor; but it will happen some-"Be off you seamp! get out of my sight!"

"Thank'ee, your honor; then I'll bid you good-night." A PHYSICAL THAFF OF HAYTIENS .- A travel-

"The blacks of Hayti have a singularly delicate sense of smelling. They often unonsciously display this physical peculiarity in the most belierous and unusual modes. When they are buying anything, for example, even Our fellow-townsman, Dow Huntsman, ing destruction to anything with which it ly put it to their nose, as if to test its fresh-Darkies in this latitude on the contrary ing," in hot weather .- Nashville Union.

AN APPLICATED MOTHER. - A few days ago

A few hours after, the bride way found in the parlor, mouning and sobbing bitterly, in her endeavors to give vent to what appeared "Why, my little dear," said the hostess, her kind heart overflowing with sympathy, what is the matter." "O, dear, dear, dear!" said the youthful bride between her convulsive gasps and sobs, all my sons, five in number, are in the ar-The lady, it appears, had married her husband the day before, who had five grown up some all of whom had enlisted, and the appalling fact had just burst upon the affleted mother of sixteen, that she had five children exposed to the cruel vicisitudes of war, - Juck-Seneral McCiellan's Reception at Frederick Anour nine o'clock this morning General " was to have" carte blanche of stores for the upon him, and when he reached the corner of ter as if, in some early moment of destiny, toot me a alien under the haybeas Korpus have a sea serpent there which is hard to his whole nature had been bathed in a cool, act, wot ar nour free instituotions good for? unseemly manner among our wagons. The clear and unruffled depth from which it drew Ef I've a constitutional object of gunpowder ed on the banks, near one of the springs, had

> And the ladies were not behind the morning their marks of approbation. They fairly 'swarmed" around him, lavishing their praises on him, kissing his hand, bidding him Godspeed, and presenting him with bouquets, and "How much do you calculate one of 'em tying little flags on his horse. The General would every now and then respond, thanking James began to suspect he had underrated them for their reception, feeling glad that they the magnitude of the piece, and thought hed | felt more comfortable, and expressing the flops, before long, of there not being one rebel in arms north of the Potomic.

> "The weight of the piece is about 2.500 Alter staying upwards of twenty minutes, pounds, but when you come to add the carri- the General rods out to the headquarters of age, etc., they weigh four thousand spicee. General Burnside, and, after consulting with each other for some time, they marched to the front, where cannonading is now going on. - Cor. Philadelphia Press.

A Story about Gen. Butler.

A sroay is told concerning Gen. Butler which is not calculated to prove his confilence in the safety of the secession element by which he is surrounded.

Some time ago Gen. Butler, finding that his wife the care to which she is entitled, re-On the 15th ultimo, as the company of Mr. solved to part with her and to send her homehappened in Kingston to the man Kelly. The tunately the water was high and the boat difprocession spoken of was coming down Bo- ficult of access. The plank thrown upon the hand and a far severer one on his shoulder. World,